

JOSH MANDEL

STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

COLUMBUS - Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel's office hosted its fourth Smart Money Choices conference of 2014 on Friday, August 1 in Dayton. During the conference, attendees heard presentations on various financial education and planning topics including budgeting, credit and debt, investments, retirement planning, college financing and consumer protection.

"I am very pleased that our office is able to provide information and resources that will help Ohioans with their personal finances," said Treasurer Mandel. "When families are at their kitchen tables making financial decisions, it is important that they have the knowledge to be able to achieve their goals."

Smart Money Choices is a free, half-day financial planning conference for all Ohioans, presented by the Ohio Treasurer's office, and supported by a variety of statewide and regional partners. Treasurer Mandel is committed to providing Ohioans with helpful tools to make informed decisions in personal finance.

The conference series, held in cities throughout the state, allows Ohio citizens the opportunity to hear from money management professionals on a variety of financial literacy topics to help them make more informed and knowledgeable decisions in their financial lives.
