

JOSH MANDEL

STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

COLUMBUS ‐ State Treasurer of Ohio Josh Mandel announced today that registration has opened for the Columbus area Smart Money Choices conference, which will be held at the Columbus State Conference Center on July 29, 2011. Smart Money Choices is a free personal financial-planning conference series for all Ohioans presented by the Treasurer's office. There are six Smart Money Choices conferences scheduled for 2011 that are being held in regions across the state. Click here for more information, or to register for the Columbus Smart Money Choices Conference..

"The Columbus Smart Money Choices conference will offer free resources to Central Ohioans who are trying to build a more solid personal financial plan. This conference series provides Ohioans from all regions of the state with free access to qualified financial professionals and experts and covers a broad range of topics and issues," said Treasurer Mandel. "The goal of Smart Money Choices is to provide Ohioans with tools to manage their finances, and to continue a focus on sound financial planning for their future."

Courses that will be offered during the day are: Budgeting, Credit & Debt Management, Consumer Fraud, Estate Planning, Insurance, Investments, Kids & Money, Programs to Help Ohioans, Retirement Planning and Social Security.

The conferences include an opening session, panel discussion, breakout sessions taught by financial planning experts, and a closing session. Participants are encouraged to interact with presenters and ask questions. These all day conferences are presented from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
