Momentum Grows for Statewide Government Transparency with Over 910 Local Government and School Districts Partnering with OhioCheckbook.com

Press Release - Ohio Treasurer's Office

MANCHESTER – Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel announced today the launch of Manchester Local School District and Green Township's online checkbooks on OhioCheckbook.com. In December 2014, Treasurer Mandel launched OhioCheckbook.com, which sets a new national standard for government transparency and for the first time in Ohio history puts all state spending information on the internet. OhioCheckbook.com recently earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for a second year in a row.

The Ohio Treasurer's office was joined at today's announcement by Manchester Local Schools Treasurer Karen Ballengee and Administrative Assistant Jessica Silvia. Manchester Local Schools is the first school district in Adams County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com, and Green Township is the seventh township in Adams County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com.

The following is a breakdown of today's local government sites:

Manchester Local Schools' online checkbook includes over 146,000 individual transactions that represent more than $258 million of total spending over the past six Fiscal Years.

Green Township's online checkbook includes over 1,600 individual transactions that represent more than $384,000 of total spending over the past three years.

"I believe the people of Adams County have a right to know how their tax money is being spent, and I applaud local leaders here for partnering with my office to post the finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Mandel. "By posting local government spending online, we are empowering taxpayers across Ohio to hold public officials accountable."

"The Manchester Local School District is proud to partner with the office of State Treasurer Josh Mandel to post our finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Karen Ballengee. "The process was very easy and comes at no cost to our taxpayers."

"I felt personally compelled to do this because I do not have anything to hide," said Green Township Fiscal Officer Joyce Rideout. "I work for the people of this township and I want to communicate with the residents how their money is being spent. I don't know why everyone doesn't do this. It honestly does not make any sense not to."

On April 7, 2015 Treasurer Mandel sent a letter to 18,062 local government and school officials representing 3,962 local governments throughout the state calling on them to place their checkbook level data on OhioCheckbook.com and extending an invitation to partner with his office at no cost to local governments. These local governments include cities, counties, townships, schools, library districts and other special districts.

A large coalition of statewide and local government organizations have expressed support for OhioCheckbook.com and local government transparency, including:

- Ohio Municipal League
- Ohio Township Association
- Ohio Association of School Business Officials
- Buckeye Association of School Administrators
- County Commissioner Association of Ohio
- County Auditor Association of Ohio
- Ohio Newspaper Association
- Ohio Society of CPAs
- Buckeye Institute
- Common Cause Ohio

OhioCheckbook.com was launched on December 2, 2014, marking the first time in Ohio history when citizens could actually see every expenditure in state government. Since its launch, OhioCheckbook.com has received overwhelming support from newspapers and groups across the state and, as of October 17, 2016 there have been more than 646,000 total searches on the site.

OhioCheckbook.com displays more than $552 billion in spending over the past eight years, including more than 151 million transactions. The website includes cutting-edge features such as:

- “Google-style” contextual search capabilities, to allow users to sort by keyword, department, category or vendor;
- Fully dynamic interactive charts to drill down on state spending;
- Functionality to compare state spending year-over-year or among agencies; and,
- Capability to share charts or checks with social media networks, and direct contact for agency fiscal offices.

In March 2015, the U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG) released their annual “Following the Money 2015” report and Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one transparency ranking in the country for providing online access to government spending data. Ohio was prominently featured in the report after climbing from 46th to 1st in spending transparency as a result of Treasurer Mandel’s release of OhioCheckbook.com. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio received a perfect score of 100 points this year – the highest score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

In April 2016, U.S. PIRG announced that Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for the second consecutive year in a row. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio again received the highest perfect score of 100 points this year – marking the second time in two years Ohio received the highest possible score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.
